R.B., Sr.

The order of the juvenile court terminating the parental rights of appellant is reversed and matter is remanded to the juvenile court with directions to order the Department to provide each Potawatomi tribe with proper notice of the proceedings under the ICWA. Since we conclude that the juvenile court did not err in terminating parental rights on the other grounds raised by appellant, if, after receiving notice under the ICWA, no tribe indicates the minor is an Indian child, then the juvenile court shall reinstate the order terminating parental rights. Except to the extent that the matter is reversed to provide notice of the proceedings under the ICWA, the habeas corpus petition is denied.
